

EMMA JOHNSON

...one of the most prolific and well-known clarinet soloists of the past quarter century

(The Clarinet, America)

Emma Johnson is one of the few clarinetists to have established a busy career as a solo performer which has taken her to major European, American and Asian venues as well as to Africa and Australasia.

She is one of the UK's biggest selling classical artists, having sold well over half a million albums. Her recording of sonatas by Brahms and Mendelssohn with John Lenehan was described as "definitive . . . triumphant . . . a landmark disc" in The Observer and follows on from her classical chart-topping successes: Voyage and The Mozart Album on the Universal label. Her much admired recording of the Finzi Concerto was nominated for a Gramophone Award and Pastoral was chosen as CD of the Year by BBC Music Magazine.

Most recently high chart positions were achieved by English Fantasy, a recording with the BBC Concert Orchestra of music written especially for Emma, as well as Clarinet Goes to Town, featuring the clarinet in an eclectic range of styles from Tango to Jazz. Books of Emma's diverse arrangements and compositions for clarinet have been published by Music Sales and Faber Music. Her piece, "Georgie" appears in the Associated Board syllabus and she has recently been commissioned to write a Christmas Suite for clarinet and choir.

Emma has appeared as soloist with many of the world's leading orchestras in repertoire which includes all the major clarinet works. She has collaborated with artists such as Sir Yehudi Menuhin and Dame Cleo Laine and she directs her own group, Emma Johnson and Friends, whose recent live recording of the Schubert Octet was described as "a winner" by Music Web International. Emma enjoys writing about and lecturing on music as well as devising concert series; her group's programme exploring the classical and popular music of Vienna will be touring soon.

Emma Johnson's TV appearances range from a recital for Sky Arts TV to prime-time chat shows and gala concerts, including a recent televised Prom concert from the Royal Albert Hall celebrating the BBC Young Musicians competition. Emma featured in the Channel 4 documentary about the jazz musician, Sir John Dankworth and she played the popular theme for The Victorian Kitchen Garden on BBC TV (winning an Ivor Novello Award). Her radio work includes Artist of the Week for both BBC Radio 3 and Classic FM as well as for radio stations around the world and she has been interviewed on BBC programmes such as Woman's Hour and World at One. Her radio broadcasts about composer Gerald Finzi and poet John Milton on BBC Radio 4 were both chosen as Pick of the Week.

An exciting collaboration with composer Jonathan Dove has seen Emma working with UK school children in workshops and performances recreating the story of The Pied Piper. She has also given masterclasses throughout the world and was a professor at the Royal College of Music, London. She is frequently invited to appear on the panels of music competitions and festivals.

Emma grew up in London and her career was launched when, at the age of 17, she won BBC Young Musician of the Year followed by the Young Concert Artists Auditions in New York. However she decided to study Music and English at Cambridge University before embarking fulltime on a musical path. A Patron of ClicSargent, the childhood cancer charity (www.clicsargent.org.uk), Emma was also the first woman to be made an Honorary Fellow of Pembroke College, Cambridge and in 2017 the college commissioned a portrait of her from BP Portrait Award winner, Isabella Watling. Emma was honoured by the Queen with an M.B.E. in 1996. Emma plays an instrument made by the English clarinet maker, Peter Eaton.

For more details please visit www.emmajohnson.co.uk Follow Emma on Twitter: @ClarinetEmmaJ